GAME PLAY DESCRIPTION

PLAYERS: All teams consist of two people, one guy, one girl. Co-ed teams compete in a head-to-head competition (2 vs. 2).

GAME PLAY: The Bud Light Shoot for the Championship Tournament will be conducted according to the following rules (See below).

RULES OF PLAY

1. Each match will be a head-to-head team competition consisting of one 35 second round. The final round will be played as a best two-out-of-three series. The first team in the final round to win two games is the winner.
2. To qualify for the national tournament in Las Vegas, teams must be co-ed. Once play has started, no team member may be substituted.
3. Teammates must stand across from each other at the same table.
4. Game starts when the Bud Light official signals "go."
5. Teams have 35 seconds to score as many points as possible.
6. Tokens that land in the outer circle of the goal earn 2 points; tokens that land in the inner circle of the goal earn 3 points.
7. All shots must be bounced. Shots that are not bounced, but land in the goal, do not count.
8. Players may collect their rebounds and shoot them again, but tokens that land off the table may not be collected and reused.
9. Players may not reach in the goal. Reaching in to the goal will result in disqualification.
10. Team with the most points - combination of two and three pointers - wins.
11. All referees' decisions are final. There is a no post-match arbitration allowed
